OUR ACTIVITIES

PARYUSHAN ARADHANA UTSAV 2024

From September 1st to 8th, 2024, the Manav Mandir Mission Trust hosted the sacred Paryushan Aradhana Utsav, a week-long spiritual festival marked by deep reflection, devotion, and self-purification. This event holds immense significance in Jainism, where devotees take the time to engage in intense spiritual practices, with the goal of cleansing their minds and souls.

The highlight of the festival was the presence of revered Gurudev Acharyashree Roopchandra Ji Maharaj, whose profound teachings and discourses inspired thousands of devotees. His wisdom, compassion, and guidance offered an opportunity for spiritual upliftment to all those in attendance, making the Utsav a truly transformative experience.

This year, the event transcended physical boundaries through its online broadcast, reaching devotees across several countries. Thousands of participants, from India and abroad, connected virtually to partake in the spiritual activities, making the event a global celebration of faith and devotion. The seamless blend of in-person and digital participation ensured that distance did not hinder anyone from receiving the divine grace of Acharyashree Roopchandra Ji Maharaj.

IREDA ORGANIZED A PLANTATION DRIVE TITLED 'EK PED MAA KE NAAM'

On September 26th, 2024, the Indian Renewable Energy Development Agency (IREDA) organized a plantation drive titled 'Ek Ped Maa ke Naam' and a Slogan Writing Competition with the children of Manav Mandir Gurukul, under the 'Swachhta Hi Seva, 2024' campaign. The event was graced by Shri Pradeep Kumar Das, Chairman and Managing Director of IREDA, Sadhvi Samta Shree, MT Arif (Chief Medical Officer of Seva Dham Plus), and several staff members from IREDA, Seva Dham Plus, and the Trust. The program began with the national anthem, followed by a pledge. Participants then engaged in a plantation drive, after which a Slogan Writing Competition was held, recognizing the top five participants with a special 'Kit' award. The program concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where the IREDA team addressed questions posed by the children.

YOGA SHIVIR ON BRAHMA KRIYA AND ROOPANTARAN DHYAN HELD IN JOHNSHOPPING, SWEDEN

A transformative Yoga Shivar was recently organized in Johnshopping, Sweden, focusing on Brahma Kriya and Roopantaran Dhyan. The event, which drew a large number of participants, was graced by the presence of Yogi Ji, whose teachings guided attendees through deep spiritual practices aimed at inner transformation and holistic well-being.

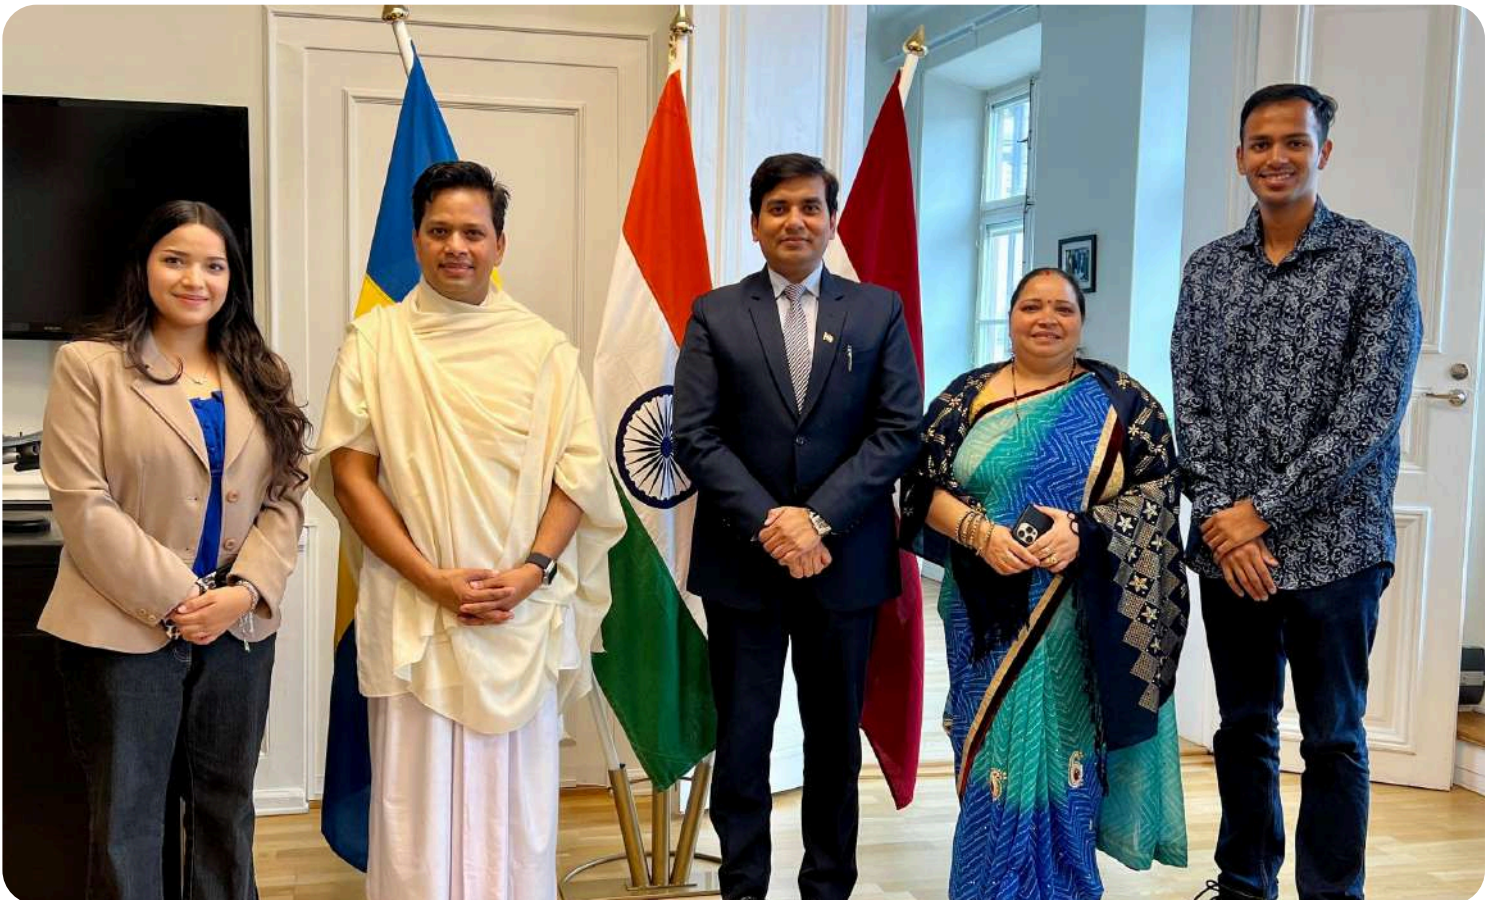

The central theme of the shivar was the powerful techniques of Brahma Kriya, which harness the life force for spiritual elevation, and Roopantaran Dhyan, a meditation practice designed to bring about personal growth and self-awareness. These practices, rooted in ancient wisdom, were introduced to help individuals connect with their higher selves and bring about positive changes in their lives. The Yoga Shivar in Johnshopping marked an important step in spreading the message of holistic wellness and spiritual growth to a global audience, reinforcing the universal appeal of ancient yogic practices in modern life.

THE DIVINE AND GRAND PROGRAM ORGANIZED ON THE 85TH BIRTHDAY OF PUJYA GURUDEV JI

“The world that battled the waves

He who understood the waves crossed.”

Best wishes on the 85th anniversary of Acharyashri Roopchandra ji Maharaj free of Lokpanthadhyas.

He has accepted honesty not in synonym and definition, but in its power. Identifying self and people. His Udgar emerges with Mahavir's emotional yoga, Krishna's equality yoga, Buddha's compassion and Jiddu's awareness Without Choice.

The flow of existence is one everywhere. There is no difference between conscious and unconscious. There is nothing like mine and stranger. That's why believing someone 'on' is violence. The amazing experience of the flow of existence is the extreme consequence of non-violence, in that experience non-violence in its fierce positive form. With the whole life of creation, there the virat sea of realization starts waving. Violence falls as soon as the dwet falls. Only unique feeling remains, non-violence is non-violence.

The divine and grand program organized on the 85th birthday of Pujya Gurudev Ji at Manav Mandir Mission premises.
